

Bradshaw Buzz

1st March, 2019

Dear Parents,

As you may imagine, it has been an interesting week. I wanted to pass on our thanks for your support on Wednesday when the Ofsted inspector was in. There were a large number of you who completed the ParentView questionnaire and that is appreciated, as well as those who spoke with her on the day too. We are not allowed to discuss the outcomes of the visit at the moment, but we will share the feedback once it has been confirmed over the next two to three weeks.

As well as that visit, the Year 3 children had a Stoneage man visit them this week; the children in Key Stage 2 had an assembly on Autism and the parents from Years 2 and 6 had workshops on the SATs that their children will be taking in the Summer term. So a busy start to another exciting half term.

Thank you for your continued support.

Bradshaw PTA Newsletter

1st March 2019

Hello & welcome to our first online newsletter!

We are constantly working behind the scenes to put together some great events for you & the children.

Our next event is the pancake flip next Monday, which will take place in school. Please send the sponsor forms back by Thu 7th March. There will be a prize presented at the Friday assembly for the child who has raised the most for this event.

After this we will then be having an own clothes day in return for chocolate to be sent in for our annual Easter bingo, to be held on Wed 3rd April just before we break up for end of term.

We always welcome any help at all - with organising events, setting up events or helping at events. There is always something everyone can do to help.

Kind Regards,
Bradshaw PTA
